

The City of Chesapeake has one of the best EMT/paramedic units in the state and their response time to out of hospital arrests is top notch. Several of the deaths in this category [cardiac catheterization and percutaneous procedures] were patients successfully resuscitated in the field and arrive in our catheterization lab but would likely not have survived long enough to make it to most hospitals.

Dr. Paul W. Braunstein, Jr.
Vice President Medical Affairs and Chief Medical Officer
736 Battlefield Blvd., N.
Chesapeake, VA 23320