

Virginia Health Information Releases its 2019 Annual Report “Collaboration in the Commonwealth”

Richmond, Va. – Virginia Health Information (VHI) has released its 2019 Annual Report: “Collaboration in the Commonwealth.” The report contains detailed information on VHI’s financial and non-financial performance, progress and activities in 2019 and highlights the organization’s strategic plan.

This year, VHI has been a key player in a variety of collaborations on projects in the Commonwealth. From the All Payer Claims Database (APCD) using data to drive “Smarter Care” to ConnectVirginia’s work with the Emergency Department Care Coordination Program (EDCCP), being involved in these projects support VHI’s mission of enhancing the quality and value of healthcare delivery and promoting informed healthcare decisions. “Our aim is to highlight how VHI is anticipating and meeting change head on with new initiatives in concert with state and federal government, private companies and multi-stakeholder collaborations,” says VHI President Rusty Maney.

Key points from this year’s annual report include:

- The support of state and federal entities to maintain and grow the APCD’s vast capability to expand population health and healthcare transparency.
- VHI’s merger with the Commonwealth’s health information exchange effective as of July 2019, resulting in ConnectVirginia HIE, becoming an official program of VHI.
- The use of VHI data to support a wide range of healthcare reform efforts
